Letter from Carol

“Underneath are Everlasting Arms”

Dear Everyone,

Lighting fires, peeling bells, eating chocolate eggs, singing hymns, giving presents, egg hunts and races, newborn lambs, Easter bunnies, feasting and rejoicing; they are all part of Celebrations on Easter day. It is only right that rejoicing should be part of the Easter festival.

The word, ‘Easter’, is derived from ‘Eostre’ who was the goddess of spring, and our Christian festival follows the tradition of ‘Eostur’ or spring festival. For Christians it is the holiest of days as we remember Jesus ‘springing’ from the tomb, and being resurrected into a new life with God. The festival follows the reflective period of Lent and especially the last week, Holy Week, which leads us up to Jesus’s last week in Jerusalem and ‘the way to the cross’, his crucifixion on Good Friday.

The pain of Good Friday is symbolic of the deep depths of despair: “And being found in appearance as a man, Christ humbled himself and became obedient to death- even death on a cross” (Philippians 2: 7-8)

He was brought into the dark, the cold and lifeless tomb. He suffered not just in the flesh but also in that “inner crucifixion” of heart, mind and spirit. For some the story of that day, of utter darkness, lasts a lifetime and somehow, they never make it to Easter Day. From the psalms though we are comforted for “He made darkness his secret place” (Ps: 18) God is there even in the darkened tomb.

Yet a Calvary stands in many places today. Wherever we are in the world, pain and suffering have carved deep wounds: those wounds in the shape of a cross. We only have to pick up a daily paper or hear the news to be reminded of the world in pain: from refugees, the troubles in Ukraine, Israel and Palestine, countries affected by climate change and economic downturns as European and world leaders struggle to work out their new relationship with America and the implications of any negotiations with Russia.

What does the Christian say to all this? Where is the hope? For us to experience the joy of Easter and the empty tomb, we first travel to that dark place, to realise that God will be with us through the pain of the world, and is at the very heart of all existence.

When I visited Jerusalem on a Good Friday, my journey ended at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, the traditional site of the crucifixion in the heart of the old city. To reach the very place where Jesus died and to visit the tomb, you enter the church, turn right and go up a short flight of stairs, you find yourself in a small chapel. There are icons and lots of candles. Against one wall is an altar standing, it is said, over the exact point where the cross stood. Under the Altar is a small hole in the floor of the chapel. Many pilgrims come here to say their prayers. If you do what most of these pilgrims do, you kneel before the altar, reach beneath it and put your hand through the hole. If you do so, you will find yourself touching the rough hard cold surface of a bare rock. Touching it you have a sense that what lies beneath all our world confusions, contradictions, mixed up lives, is something greater than any of us can imagine but it is something that brings hope.

If we go there we find as Christ did, that “the eternal God is our refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms” (Deuteronomy 33:27) and then we can all sing for joy on Easter Day, that “He lives, He lives! Christ Jesus Lives today, He walks with me, He talks with me along life's narrow way. You ask me how I know he live, He lives within my heart”

This year, celebrate Easter Now on April 20th and find new life within your heart that can recharge and inspire you for the months to come!

Parish Matters

The Valentine's Lunch

Well, what a lovely day had by all! The first thing you see when you go into the hall is red and white tablecloths with red heart-shaped balloons on each table with music playing.

After we had all sat down, we were greeted by Geoff who asked us what we would like to drink (wine, juice or water) and continued to top up your glass throughout the afternoon. The scene was set for the Valentine's Lunch.

Lunch was tomato or mushroom soup which was delicious and was followed by ham, cheese or pate salad (which I had) followed by an enormous piece of cake with cream and coffee.

The raffle went well, and I think most tables got at least one prize.

A big thank you to all the gentlemen who prepared the food and waited on us making sure everyone was served and no-one had been missed!! Thank you to Bob, Geoff, Tony, John, Ken and Stephen for a really good afternoon. A profit of £253.63 was raised for Church funds.

Children's Society Boxes

Will all those who currently hold a Children's Society box kindly hand them into Dave or Wendy Taylor for the annual count. Thank you.

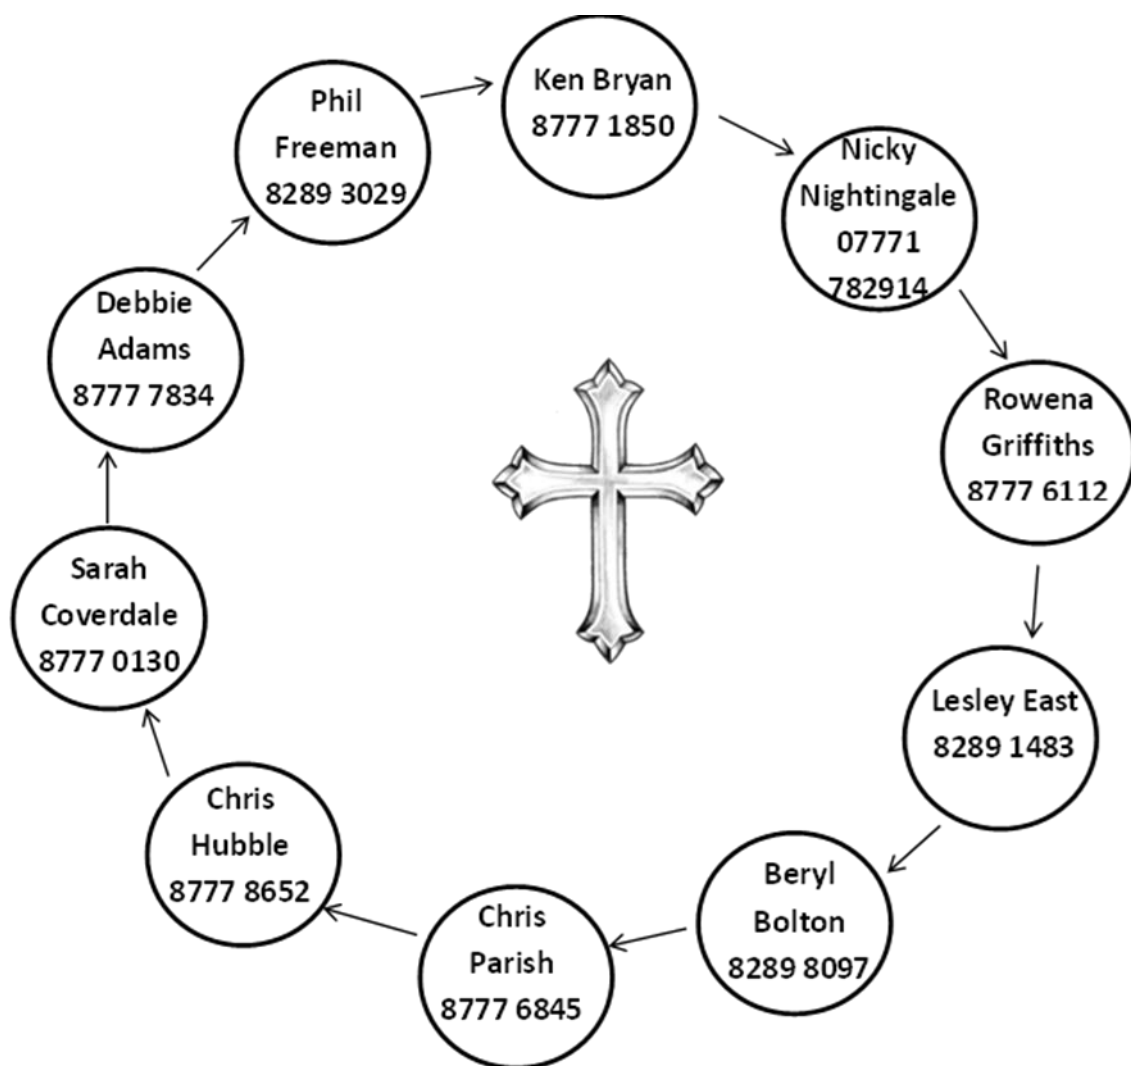

New Season of Lunchtime Concerts

Spring is on the way, and it is time to think about the new season of lunchtime concerts to be held in St. Francis Church. We have some exciting new musicians whom we are looking forward to playing for us, as well as some familiar players. The concerts are all on Thursdays and begin at 12.45pm for about 45 minutes. Please pencil the following dates in your diary, 22nd May, 19th June, 17th July, 14th August and 18th September. Tea and coffee will be available as usual before the concerts commence, and with free entry bring a friend along and enjoy a happy lunch hour with music once a month!

St Francis and St Mary's Prayer Chain

Many people find they are given strength and peace of mind when they know that they, or their loved ones, are being prayed for. And the more people who are praying for someone, the better!

If you would like prayer for yourself, please call anyone on the chain below and they will pass a message on around the circle. If you like a name added to the intercessions list in our services, (which will be on-line as well as in-person) please state this when you make contact.

Prayer Focus

April

Palm Sunday:

Words from a prayer by Nick Fawcett.

Lord Jesus Christ,
You entered Jerusalem in quiet humility
Taking the form of a servant,
Even to the point of death on a cross.
Emptying yourself so that we might be filled
Come again now and establish your Kingdom.

Bring healing where there is division,
Love where there is hatred, hope where there is despair.
Joy where there is sorrow, confidence where there is fear.
Strength where there is weakness. Healing where there is sickness.
Life where there is death.
Come again now and establish your Kingdom.

Help us to see that it was not only in the welcome of Palm Sunday but in the rejection that followed that Jesus revealed your glory.
Hosanna to the son of David.

Words from a hymn by Isaac Watts (1674 – 1748)

When I survey the wondrous cross
on which the Prince of Glory died.
My richest gain I count but loss
And pour contempt on all my pride.

See from his head, his hands, his feet

sorrow and love flow mingled down,
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

May

We pray for the world suffering because too many people believe that to put themselves first is the only wise way; suffering, because too many people cannot see the need for justice alleviation of want.

We pray for the leaders and rulers of nations that when they put their people first they will not forget needful nations.

We pray for the church throughout the world, struggling in the face of modern scepticism and scorn.

We pray for humankind searching for truth and the right way to live with you, with one another and with themselves.

Verses from a hymn by Dora Greenwell (1821-82)

I am not skilled to understand
What God hath willed, what God hath planned,
I only know that at his right hand
Stands one who is my Saviour.

And was there then no other way
For God to take I cannot say;
I only bless Him, day by day.
Who saved me through my Saviour.

May the truth of the resurrection inspire us with new hope
May the victory of Christ fill us with new joy,
May the reality of his presence fill us with new faith
And so may we serve you with new vigour to the glory of your name
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The Bishop of Southwark's Lent Call 2025

4 March 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

During the last year we have heard so much about the mental health and wellbeing of children and young people here in the UK and across the world. There are so many displaced, injured and vulnerable children and young people around the world. Here in the UK, too, we have children who have been traumatised by the after-effects of the Covid-19 pandemic, domestic abuse, family break ups – or simply the oppressions of contemporary society.

As a result, I have chosen this verse from Matthew Chapter 19 as the theme for this year's Lent Call:

'Jesus said, 'Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs'.

This year, we are concentrating on three projects involving children and young people's mental health and wellbeing. In our own diocese, we are featuring Welcare's CapeAbility schools programme, which works with children in years 3-6 at primary school. In our Link Dioceses in Zimbabwe, we are working with the Anglican Council of Churches of Zimbabwe who want to support orphans who have been harmed by their circumstances, offering psychological care and support and training for those who care for them.

In our Link Diocese of Jerusalem and the Middle East the Princess Basma Centre is working with children and young people who have been traumatised and injured by the recent hostilities between Israel and Gaza. The team there has have set up 'satellite centres' outside of their Centre in Jerusalem to help those who are most in need. In addition to the usual project sheets, this year we are also offering some more information about displaced children and young people and their needs worldwide, as well as prayer ideas for you to use during Lent and beyond. You'll also be able to watch stories direct from our partners and hear about their work in videos that will be shared on our Youtube channel.

I hope that you will encourage your congregations to observe this Lent in a prayerful way so that it deepens faith and refreshes the soul. Lent is a time for us all to focus on all that God has done for us and to pray for guidance as we consider what we should do in response to God's incredible generosity. Please do think and pray about these Lent projects, encourage your congregations and schools to do the same and to consider what they might give to ensure that this vital frontline work can continue.

Once again, the Lent Call materials will all be online in a format that you can download and print for your church and school. Please also direct people to our website (southwark.anglican.org/lentcall) so that people can explore the materials for themselves, as well as find out how to give. There will also be worship and project materials for our schools – which can work for children's groups in parish, too.

I very much hope that our Lent Call will offer a time and opportunity for all of us to pray for young people who are in need, to reflect on their situations and to give whatever we can to support their wellbeing. Details of how to give financially can be found on our website.

Please display and use these materials and encourage those in your churches to pray and to give as part of their Lenten discipline. I hope and pray that, by using the relevant project sheet and by praying each day week they will find new understandings of the plight of many children and young people in our world today and be able to consider their response.

With my thanks and prayers for all that you do and for our partnership in the Gospel,

WE ARE ALL GUILTY

Well, I am. At times! Of complacency of leaving it to others to sort out!

BUT we do have a duty when it comes to the safeguarding of children OR vulnerable adults in the church.

There is a manual in our church vestibule entitled, 'A Safe Church', which is for reference by anyone and acts as a guide to safeguarding matters.

If you do have a genuine concern about such a matter, then you may wish to speak to Charlotte Wilson or Kim Teare, our Safeguarding Officers or to one of the churchwardens.

HAVE YOU OR WILL YOU BE MAKING A WILL?

If so, please consider leaving a legacy to St. Mary's.

Legacies we have had in the past have been a great blessing and encouragement and enabled us to carry out important work. It is helpful if the bequest is given without conditions so the PCC can use the money as they feel appropriate.

Please give this prayerful consideration.

To make a Will is one of the kindest things you can do so your wishes are known.
