LETTER FROM HAZEL

Dear friends,

Each week at the end of our service of communion, people are sent out with the words 'Go in peace to love and serve the Lord'. Having listened to and worshipped God in the service, he is then sending us out into the world to carry out his work or mission. This model of firstly listening to God (or spending time with Jesus), and then being involved in mission, indicates what it is to be a Christian – you cannot do one without the other:

- Taking part in church and community-based activities without spending time with Jesus is good, but it's not Christ-like. Jesus himself spent time in prayer to give himself spiritual sustenance for the teaching and healing that he did. Without that time with God our activities will be what we want to do, rather than what God has in mind.
- Likewise, just coming to church on a Sunday and having one's own prayer time, without taking that faith into the community, your family or the workplace, is to be very insular and not Christ-like at all.

It's like breathing – you have to breathe in and breathe out to stay alive. You have to take in God's word and go out on God's mission to remain a Christian. In all his letters to the early churches St Paul never told them that their task was to increase their numbers, but they were told to live as Christians (i.e., be like Christ).

At our recent APCM meetings, I talked about how we might bring more of a balance to our Martha and Mary characteristics in life. If you remember, in the bible passage (Luke 10: 38-42), Martha rushes around to prepare food and possibly places for Jesus and his friends to stay, while her sister, Mary, sits at Jesus' feet listening to what he has to say. Both the resting and the working are necessary in life, but it can be difficult to strike the right balance, as anyone who has struggled with finding an appropriate work/life balance will know.

I don't always get it right myself, but I am constantly trying to change the balance in what I do. I'd like to share with you something of my sabbatical to illustrate this. I gained much learning about living a contemplative life and have seen benefits arising from living in this way since that time. I have set a date to do this in early June – see page 7.

Living as a Christian is not easy - living a life of faith outside the church buildings is not something we talk about much. There needs to be a balance between time with those from the churches, time with God and time with other friends and family. Finding a greater connection between what happens on a Sunday morning and what happens during the rest of the week might help us in achieving our Vision to have an abundant life connected to Jesus through compassion, community, commerce and congregation.

I have started to speak of some of the connections between this vision and what is happening in our community and West Wickham in my pew sheet messages. I hope that this will give pointers about where we are partnering with God in his mission when we are sent out after the service on a Sunday morning, so making us a kingdom-centred culture rather than a church-centred one.

Comedy Night

This will be held at St Francis' Church on Friday 7th July. Doors open at 7pm with a bar available.

Trip to the National Gallery

The National Gallery in London is hosting the first major UK art exhibition to explore Saint Francis of Assisi's life and legacy. This free exhibition looks at why this saint is a figure of enormous relevance to our time due to his spiritual radicalism, commitment to the poor, and love of God and nature, as well as his powerful appeals for peace, and openness to dialogue with other religions.

We are planning to travel up by train to Charing Cross on Saturday 8th July for this exhibition which will give an opportunity to see how Saint Francis has captured the imagination of artists through the centuries from some of the earliest medieval panels, relics and manuscripts to modern-day films and a Marvel comic. More information will follow, but if you are especially interested in joining the group, please speak with Richard Ford.

Healing Service

We will be holding a Healing Service on Sunday 9th July at 3pm in St Francis' Church. This will be an opportunity to come and rest in God's presence. Although this may help with physical healing, it can also help with finding peace in a complicated world and with emotional, spiritual and mental matters. It would be most unusual if you thought you needed no help at all in these areas.

Children's Society Cake and Coffee Morning

On Saturday, 22nd July 2023 between 10.00-12.00 noon, the Children's Society Cake and Coffee Morning will be held in the Large Hall at St Francis. Delicious home-made cakes for sale. Coffee and biscuits, children's amusements, "Guess the weight of the Cake", raffle. Please come along and bring your friends. All proceeds to The Children's Society. Donations of Home-made Cakes to sell at this event, would be very welcome.

Lunchtime Concerts at St. Francis

Spring means a new season of lunchtime concerts to be held in St. Francis church, and as usual, we have a varied programme of music to be enjoyed; we will be welcoming pianists, a guitarist, a singer and a small orchestra. The dates to note in your diaries are all Thursdays: June 15th, July 13th, August 17th and either 21st or 28th September (which one is to be confirmed by Langley Park school). Let's make up a full audience for these talented musicians! The concerts commence at 12.45 pm, and as usual tea and coffee will be available before the concerts. Friends and colleagues are all welcome too!

Jean Mathers

West Wickham Choir Concert

The Summer West Wickham Choir concert is at 7.30 p.m. on Saturday 15th July at St. Francis Church. The programme will include "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" and Songs from "Jesus Christ Superstar". Please watch the pew sheet next month for details of tickets.

PARISH MATTERS

St. George's Supper Saturday 22nd April

Dennis and I had never been to a St. George's Day Supper before, so we made enquiries about what to expect. We were told about a choice of Starter-prawn or melon. We were told about roast beef and Yorkshire pudding. We were told about trifle and coffee and choc mints but we were not told how good the meal would be. Everything was perfect.

We were not told that the hall and table would be decorated and how that would add to the pleasure of the evening. We were not told about the Quiz about St George which made us think. We were told that appropriate songs would be sung but we were not told how enjoyable that would be.

So, just in case you are thinking about attending next year, I am letting you know now!

With special thanks to Paul and Michelle Graydon for preparing and cooking the meal and to Rebecca Graydon and Matt Thompson for serving us so beautifully. Thanks also to Geoff for playing the piano for our sing-along and to those who set up the hall. A profit of £505.50 was made for Church funds.

Children's Society Boxes

If you hold a Children's Society Box these are now due for the annual count, so please give to Dave or Wendy Taylor as soon as possible. Thank you.

Coronation Weekend 6th - 8th May

After many months of intense preparation, organisation discussions and rehearsing every detail the Coronation Day arrived. The Mall was packed with thousands of people from all walks of life, from several days beforehand, new friendships were formed, and old ones renewed. There was an air of excitement and anticipation of the imminent parade. Eventually the procession started followed by the coach carrying the King and Queen and was greeted by loud cheers and applause.

Westminster Abbey was opened very early in order that the many guests could be seated in good time. They enjoyed some beautiful music and the choristers while they waited.

On arrival at The Abbey, the King was greeted by many dignitaries. He processed slowly along the aisle where he was greeted by a confident young choirboy. The Service was full of Pageantry and historical procedures dating back several centuries. Leaders from many Faiths took part in the Service, including a Gospel Choir. After the Crowning, Prince William, Prince of Wales, vowed allegiance to his father. During the Service the theme was that the King was coming to serve rather than be served.

The return journey to the Palace with Princess Anne, Gold Stick in Waiting, riding behind the King's coach, and the Royal Children waving enthusiastically to the crowds received rapturous cheers from the crowds in spite of the wet weather. The crowd surged down the Mall to see the 'Working Royals' on the balcony and waited for the Red Arrows fly past in perfect formation as usual.

Sunday was a beautiful day ideal for the Palace Lunch which was attended by invited guests. Some had tickets, but many were chosen for their Community Service. The evening Concert at Windsor contained something for everyone, music, drama, and ballet. It was delightful to see Prince George and Princess Charlotte enjoying the proceedings, while Prince William gave a moving tribute to his father.

St Mary's hosted a most appetising Buffet Lunch for about fifty people. Ann, Gifty, and their team did a wonderful job of decorating the Hall and organising the food, various sandwiches, cold meats, quiches, coleslaw and crisp salad followed by delicious desserts and fresh fruit. There was a very happy and friendly atmosphere. Thank you to all concerned.

On Monday, The Royals and their children were out in the Community painting, digging, and generally helping by volunteering and serving as they promised, a wonderful example to us all.

The Free Forgiveness of God

LET US GIVE THANKS to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! For in our union with Christ he has blessed us by giving us every spiritual blessing in the heavenly world. Even before the world was made, God had already chosen us to be his, through our union with Christ, so that we would be holy and without fault before him.

Because of his love, God had already decided that through Jesus Christ, he would make us his children. This was his pleasure and purpose. Let us praise God for his glorious grace; for the free gift he gave us in his dear Son! For by the blood of Christ we are set free, that is, our sins are forgiven. How great is the grace of God, which he gave to us in such large measure.

Ephesians 1: 3-8a

St. James calling to us.

29th Let us be as quick to spend time at the feet of Jesus
SS Martha & Mary as we are to actively serve him.

Peace for a Suffering World

God's love and compassion never fails; we bring before him in prayer the people of war-torn countries especially thinking of Sudan, Yemen, Somalia and Ukraine: - Lord, may you bless the work of all who are seeking to help bring peace and healing to our world; all who are working to restore unity and harmony among nations.

We pray for all who are homeless, thinking of those who have been made refugees by war and oppression. We think of and pray for those who sleep rough and who sleep out in our towns and cities. Please give them your comfort, Lord.

Grant that we who live secure in this insecure world, may be generous in caring for our displaced brothers and sisters.

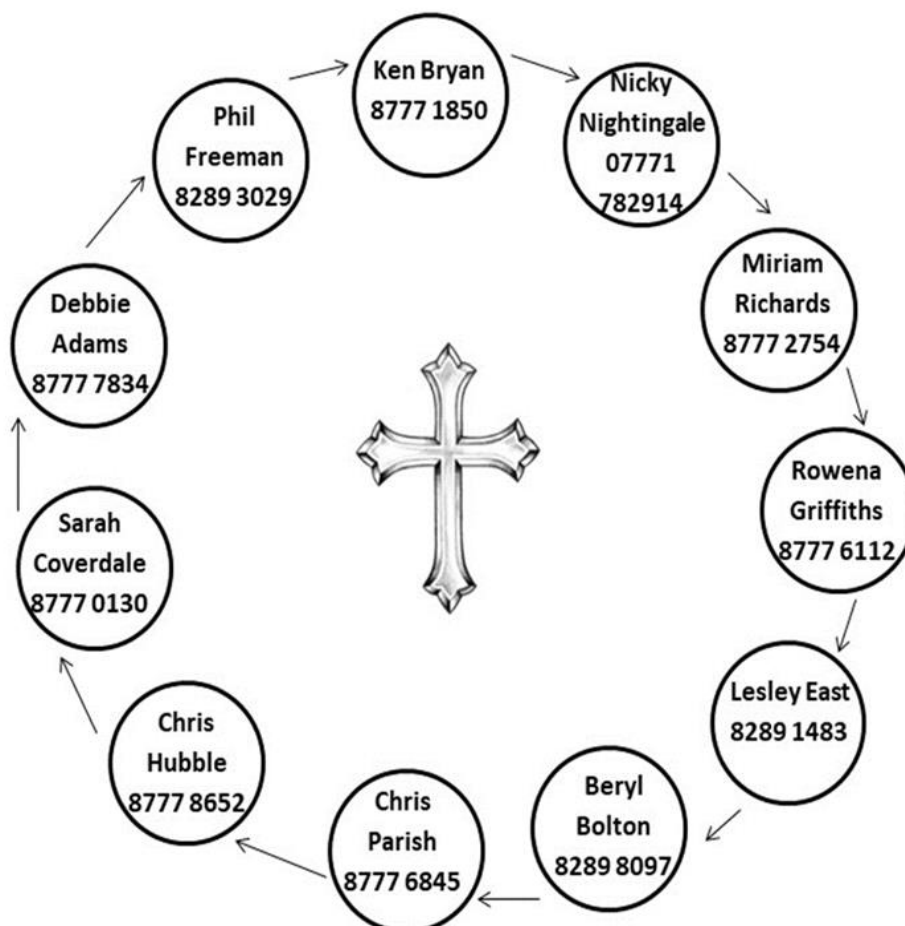

We ask in the name of Jesus our Lord.

Amen.

St Francis and St Mary's Prayer Chain

Many people find they are given strength and peace of mind when they know that they, or their loved ones, are being prayed for. And the more people who are praying for someone, the better!

If you would like prayer for yourself, please call anyone on the chain below and they will pass a message on around the circle. If you like a name added to the intercessions list in our services, (which will be on-line as well as in-person) please state this when you make contact.

God on Mute – Lent 2023

Many people in our congregations have been going through really tough times coping with, amongst other issues, bereavement and illness. It led me to explore how we cope with those difficult situations when God seems far away – when our prayers seem to go unanswered. I did an internet search for the phrase ‘unanswered prayer’ and the first site listed was ‘Prayer Course 2 – Unanswered Prayer’ and the accompanying book ‘God on Mute’ by Pete Greig. He is the founder of the organisation ‘Prayer 24/7’ and, with his wife Sammy, is the pastor of Emmaus Road, a large church with congregations in Guildford, Woking and Aldershot. He wrote ‘God on Mute’ after a particularly traumatic time in his life when his wife was seriously ill. The course and the book seemed to answer many of my questions about unanswered prayer and so the Ministry Team decided that we would use the course for our Lent Groups and a complementary series of sermons.

We began by looking generally at prayer and why God sometimes seems absent or silent during the storms in our lives. In this introduction it was acknowledged that life is messy – it isn’t all plain sailing – even for those with a strong faith. It’s OK to have doubts. Indeed, the opposite of faith is not doubt, but certainty. Certainty is missing the point entirely. Faith includes noticing the mess, the emptiness and discomfort, and letting it be there until some light returns.

The other sermons followed Jesus to the cross, embracing themes around Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Day.

Maundy Thursday (How I am going to get through this?)

Jesus must have struggled with this thought when he prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane. Yet, he didn't try to avoid it, but surrendered to His Father's will. Jesus wept in the garden and Pete Greig writes that often tears are the best form of prayer.

Good Friday (Why have you forsaken me?)

When Jesus uttered his cry of desperation from the cross, there seemed to be no answer, there was no immediate miracle. In this moment Jesus made it plain for all time the need we have for explanation. 'Why is this happening to me? Why does it appear that you have distanced yourself from me? Why have you abandoned me?' Pain, disappointment, confusion or a sense of abandonment cause us to ask God the ultimate question - 'Why?' It is perfectly right that we should ask that most fundamental question 'Why.' 'Why, when I try to do good do bad things happen to me? And often there's no answer to that question, except that God's world is complicated. It's impossible to answer everyone's prayer and his will might be different to ours (often it's much better in the long run). And sometimes our pain might be because we are having to fight with God against the evil one.

Holy Saturday (Where is God when Heaven is silent?)

Sometimes, silence is part of God's plan for us. However, in the silence there is still room for prayer. God is still there beside us.

Easter Sunday (When will my prayers be answered?)

There are three ways in which our living hope (an answer to unanswered prayer) can come through Christ's resurrection: the understanding that the greater our suffering, the greater our joy; finding something to be thankful for at all times; and using our experience to help others and serve God. Seeing unanswered prayer as an opportunity to experience God with us, or to understand him better, or to gain other blessings through helping others or being supported ourselves through difficult times can reveal an answer to prayer, even if the answer is not the one that we've been praying for.

There's a lovely prayer entitled Silent God by Edwina Gateley that expresses how God doesn't abandon us, but is always near even though we may not be aware of his presence:

This is my prayer — That, though I may not see, I be aware Of the Silent God who stands by me.
That, though I may not feel, I be aware
Of the Mighty Love which doggedly follows me.
That, though I may not respond, I be aware
That God—my Silent, Mighty God, waits each day.
Quietly, hopefully, persistently.
Waits each day and through each night for me.
For me—alone.

 to let the people of Israel go out of his land...
 The Egyptians shall know that I AM the Lord
 when I stretch out my hand against Egypt..."
 As Pharaoh's heart was hardened against the Israelites, God sent ten plagues upon him...

WE ARE ALL GUILTY

Well, I am. At times! Of complacency of leaving it to others to sort out!

BUT we do have a duty when it comes to the safeguarding of children OR vulnerable adults in the church.

There is a manual in our church vestibule entitled, 'A Safe Church', which is for reference by anyone and acts as a guide to safeguarding matters.

If you do have a genuine concern about such a matter, then you may wish to speak to Kay Mussard, our Safeguarding Officer or one of the following: our Vicar, Rev. Hazel O'Sullivan or to one of the churchwardens.

HAVE YOU OR WILL YOU BE MAKING A WILL?

If so, please consider leaving a legacy to St. Mary's.

Legacies we have had in the past have been a great blessing and encouragement and enabled us to carry out important work. It is helpful if the bequest is given without conditions so the PCC can use the money as they feel appropriate.

Please give this prayerful consideration.

To make a Will is one of the kindest things you can do so your wishes are known.
